

Table of Contents

Introduction

xxxxx xx

Section One: Our Game

Chapter One:

Why Baseball? by John Thorn xx

Chapter Two:

Barry Bonds: Is He the Greatest Ever? by John Thorn xx

Chapter Three:

Moneyball: Does the Strategy Work? by Peter Wayner xx

Chapter Four:

Why the '39 Yankees are the greatest team in baseball history, by Rob Neyer xx

Chapter Five:

Our Game, by John Thorn xx

Section Two:

In the Beginning 1870-1900

Chapter Six:

America falls in love with this new game called baseball xx

Chapter Seven:

True Father of Baseball, by John Thorn xx

Chapter Eight:

Baseball and the Civil War, by Patricia Millen xx

Chapter Nine:

The First Great Pitcher, by John Thorn xx

Chapter Ten:

SPORT: The 1869 Red Stockings, by Jack Zanger xx

Section Three: Early Days 1901-1945

Chapter Eleven:

A New Century, A New Game xx

1901: American League born amid cries to clean up the game xx

1902: National Agreement brings peace at last to major leagues xx

1903: Baseball welcomes a new beginning—and World Series xx

1904: Giants dominate with one-two pitching punch xx

1905: Mathewson's mastery carries NY Giants to Series triumph xx

1906: Cubs, White Sox give Windy City year to remember xx

1907: Cubs again sublime while Cobb shines and Mack whines xx

1908: One Giants misstep allows sly Cubs to claim pennant xx

1909: Ugly incident, Wagner heroics taint Cobb's Triple Crown xx

1910: Cubs romp to pennant as Cobb targeted in conspiracy xx

1911: Cobb has career year but Coombs leads Athletics to Series xx

1912: Cy Young calls it quits as pinstripes and Fenway debut xx

1913: Johnson wins 36, Dodgers open Ebbets as Athletics romp xx

1914: New Federal League overshadows year of Miracle Braves xx

1915: Federal League runs out of money as Ruth wins 18 xx

1916: Speaker, Mathewson among several stars involved in trades xx

1917: War and bookies spread dark cloud over unusual season xx

1918: Shutout steak ends but Ruth leads Sox to Series victory xx

1919: Black Sox scandal gives shocking end to scandalous season xx

1920: Corrupt players banned as Chapman killed, Ruth bought xx

1921: Landis takes control as Ruth hits 59 to save game's image xx

1922: New rules, live ball see home run totals take dramatic rise xx

1923: Giants left behind as Yankees move to new home xx

1924: Riots, bribery scandal take luster off Senators' season xx

1925: Ruth has death scare, Pipp gets headache, Pirates crowned xx

1926: Speaker, Cobb retire amid fixing charges as Cards win xx

1927: Ruth whacks 60, Cobb gets 4,000th as Cubs top 1M xx

1928: Ruth, Gehrig, Gomez carry Yankees to Series repeat xx

1929: Hornsby paces Cubs but Mack's A's get all the breaks xx

1930: Sluggers go on spree until bats silenced in World Series xx

1931: A Triple Crown for Lefty Grove, but Cards take Series xx

1932: A season of change ends with fabled Ruth 'called' homer xx

1933: All-Star game debuts as Philly see double Triple Crown xx

1934: Tigers romp as Gas House Gang delights St. Louis xx

1935: Ruth has last hurrah, Tigers win without Greenberg xx

1936: Year of the rookie: DiMaggio bats .325, Feller fans 15 xx

1937: All New York Series outshines Medwick Triple Crown xx

1938: Lights out for Pirates after Hartnett homer as Yanks win xx

1939: Williams' debut is overshadowed by Gehrig's farewell xx

1940: Tigers juggle lineup to dethrone Yankees; Reds take Series xx

1941: Williams, DiMaggio earn a special place in history xx

1942: Cards rally humbles cocky Dodgers and powerful Yanks xx

1943: Players go off to war as managers bicker and Yanks win xx

1944: Browns meet Cards in an unexpected all-St. Louis Series xx

1945: Greenberg returns to power Tigers to Series victory xx

Chapter Twelve:

Rube Waddell: Peter Pan of baseball, by John Thorn xx

Chapter Thirteen:

John McGraw and his talented—but hated—'05 Giants, by John Devaney xx

Chapter Fourteen:

Murderers' Row: The Saga of the '27 Yankees, by John Greenfeld xx

Chapter Fifteen:

Down but not out: The amazing story of the '42 Cards, by Bob Broeg xx

Section Four:

The Golden Era 1946-1968

Chapter Sixteen:

Go West, Young Man! xx

1946: Boston Slaughtered as post-war boom revitalizes baseball xx

1947: Color barrier falls as Robinson debuts for Dodgers xx

1948: Durocher bolts; Indians take Series for showboat Veeck xx

1949: Stengel's Yankees limp to pennant then upset Dodgers xx

1950: Philly Whiz Kids end 24-year draught but fall to Yankees xx

1951: Thomson's homer heard 'round world, and in Brooklyn xx

1952: Army calls, Berra leads Yankees as Braves exit Boston xx

1953: Snider, Campanella each top 40 homers, but Yanks win xx

Table of Contents

1954: Indians ride pitching to 111 wins but Mays in spotlight	xx
1955: The Boys of Summer pound out Series win over Yankees	xx
1956: Mantle outstanding, Larsen perfect as O'Malley bristles	xx
1957: Aaron powers Braves in swan-song for Dodgers, Giants	xx
1958: Dodgers toast of L.A., Mays forlorn in S.F.	xx
1959: 93,000 greet Campanella, as Dodgers win Series	xx
1960: Mantle, Maris united, Ted exits as Maz blast ends Series	xx
1961: Maris tops Ruth but haunted by asterisk, fan indifference	xx
1962: Wills eclipses Cobb amid Mets follies, Yankees triumph	xx
1963: Koufax Triple Crown leads Dodger charge as Musial quits	xx
1964: Boyer leads Cards as Yanks squabble and Phillies collapse	xx
1965: Yanks, Cards plummet, Braves pack their bags	xx
1966: Koufax's arm gives out, Robinson does it all for Orioles	xx
1967: Yaz wins Triple Crown but Sox bats silenced by Gibson	xx
1968: McLain wins 31, but Lolich the hero as Tigers win	xx

Chapter Seventeen:

Showman Veck and the last hurrah of the '48 Indians, by Hal Lebovitz	xx
---	----

Chapter Eighteen:

Summer of 1950: When Philly fell for the Whiz Kids, by Harry Paxton	xx
--	----

Chapter Nineteen:

The '55 Dodgers: Delivering at last on years of promise, by Frank Graham, Jr.	xx
--	----

Section Five:

The Modern Game 19691-2003

Chapter Twenty:

Freedom's just another word...	xx
1969: The Miracle Mets baseball's big story in a year of change	xx
1970: Floyd, McLain, Bouton make off-field news	xx
1971: Rookie Blue takes Cy, Orioles staff all aces as Pirates win	xx
1972: Clemente dies after A's upend Reds in strike-marred year	xx
1973: Ryan breaks K's record but Jackson, pitching power A's	xx
1974: Aaron belts No. 715 to break record as Brock swipes 118	xx
1975: Hunter joins Yanks, Robinson makes history as A's toppled	xx
1976: Free agency arrives; Finley, Kuhn battle; Bench leads Reds	xx
1977: Seaver, Jackson move, Mr. October a smash hit in Series	xx
1978: Guidry rises above Bronx Zoo madness as Rose streaks	xx
1979: Pirates discover 'family'; Rose, Carew dealt; Munson killed	xx
1980: Brett flirts with .400, Phillies win after a 97-year wait	xx
1981: Strike, split season create tainted champs; Fernando shines	xx
1982: Pinballers unable to keep up with Wallbangers	xx
1983: Win Ugly Sox, pine tar, Wheeze Kids mean unsightly year	xx
1984: Cubs blow Series shot as Tigers lead from start to finish	xx
1985: Rose gets No. 4,192 as Carew, Seaver, Ryan hit milestones	xx
1986: Buckner boots Series to make Amazin' Mets champs	xx
1987: Mets ace enters rehab, Jays fold as Twins roar to top	xx
1988: Wrigley nights; Canseco goes 40-40; Gibson homer hero	xx
1989: Rose gets life; bad heart kills Giamatti; quake rocks Series	xx
1990: Rose jailed, exile for Steinbrenner as players face lockout	xx
1991: Rickey passes Brock, Braves ascend as Puckett leads Twins	xx
1992: In topsy-turvy season, Series title goes to Canada's Jays	xx
1993: Carter dings Wild Thing with walk-off homer	xx
1994: The darkest hour: World Series cancelled due to strike	xx

1995: Ripken passes Gehrig, Nomo a hit as Braves finally win	xx
1996: Clemens fans 20, Yanks on top in tough year for umps	xx
1997: Inter-league games get mixed reviews as Marlins surprise	xx
1998: Marlins hold fire sale as McGwire, Sosa chase record	xx
1999: Martinez is dominant but Yankees repeat in World Series	xx
2000: Bad blood in NY as Yankees down Mets in subway Series	xx
2001: Bonds breaks records, Suzuki shines, A-Rod hits jackpot	xx
2002: Tragedy hits Cards as Selig bumbles and Randy is dandy	xx
2003: Sosa uncorked in another cursed year for Cubs, Red Sox	xx

Chapter Twenty-One:

Curt Flood's legacy: One man's struggle to become free, by Curt Flood with Stu Black	xx
---	----

Chapter Twenty-Two:

Henry Aaron and his magic number, by Pat Conroy	xx
---	----

Chapter Twenty-Three:

The Klutz and the Catfish, by Marty Appel	xx
---	----

Section Six: The Post-Season

Chapter Twenty-Four:

Post-Season Play, by Frederick Ivor-Campbell and David Pietrusza	xx
--	----

Chapter Twenty-Five:

The Tie-Breakers: 1-game and 3-game playoffs, by Bruce Markusen	xx
--	----

Section Seven: Feature Articles

Chapter Twenty-Six:

The Business of Baseball, by David Pietrusza and Rob Neyer	xx
--	----

Chapter Twenty-Seven:

Jackie Robinson's signing: The real, untold story, by John Thorn and Jules Tygiel	xx
--	----

Chapter Twenty-Eight:

Baseball and the Law, by Gary D. Hailey	xx
---	----

Chapter Twenty-Nine:

Ballparks Past & Present, by Philip J. Lowry	xx
--	----

Chapter Thirty:

Baseball Commissioners, by A. D. Suehsdorf	xx
--	----

Chapter Thirty-One:

The Changing Game, by Bill Felber and Gary Gillette	xx
---	----

Chapter Thirty-Two:

Baseball Families, by Larry Amman	xx
---	----

Section Eight: Other Leagues

Chapter Thirty-Three:

The Minor Leagues, by Bob Hoie	xx
--	----

Chapter Thirty-Four:

Black Ball, by Jules Tygiel	xx
---	----

Chapter Thirty-Five:

Who was the first black man to play in the major leagues? by Jules Tygiel	xx
---	----

Chapter Thirty-Six:

Rival Leagues, by Harold Dellinger	xx
--	----

Chapter Thirty-Seven:

